Foreword

The Arizona Genealogical Advisory Board, Inc. (AzGAB) is a statewide non-profit organization.

Our mission is to facilitate education and communication among organizations and individuals who are dedicated to the promotion of genealogy and history.

Our goal is to:

- * improve communications among genealogical societies, libraries with genealogical collections, professionals, and the general public.
- * foster an atmosphere for the opportunity to educate its members and the genealogical community with regard to information resources, standards, and ethics.
- * facilitate the dissemination of information to its members with regard to the availability, the use, and the preservation concerning multimedia.
- * keep its members informed of the changes in legislation with regard to the preservation of records and the public access to those records. AzGAB shall express its concern regarding these issues where it is appropriate.
- * promote such special projects as the organization approves.

Membership is open to any public or private society, group, library, museum, professional or individual researcher, and family historian sharing the purposes of this organization without taking autonomy from any organization or individual.

Because improving communications is so important, AzGAB is issuing its fifth AzGAB Speakers Bureau Directory containing 15 names of Arizona speakers, as well as national speakers. We hope the directory will be of assistance to those who are program chairpersons or seminar planners.

We included national speakers as a service to AzGAB member societies. Many seminar planners are faced with choosing suitable speakers for their annual conference. The national speakers included in this directory have given seminars in Arizona within the past 5 years. Most of them have listed the Arizona sponsoring society in their listings of “recent engagements”. Please feel free to contact the previous sponsoring society for information.

I thank the speakers who took the time to complete the form, Susi Fathauer and D. Sue Kissel for some speaker contact information, and to Betsy Howard, AzGAB Secretary and Directory Co-Chair, for formatting the directory. The AzGAB Board hopes that this directory will be a well-used source in your society! If AzGAB can be of assistance to any genealogical society, please contact any of the officers or visit our webpage at www.azgab.org/. We would love to hear from you!

Qualifications: Certified Genealogist. Teacher, lecturer, writer, researcher. My lectures and classes are designed to help researchers hone their skills and look at their problems objectively. Most genealogical problems can be solved by review and analysis. Often the very clue needed is buried in the information we already have. When research begins with a plan, the focus is on success not failure. I love a challenge—for this reason the women in my ancestry have become the heart of my research. Past president, Green Valley (Arizona) Genealogical Society; President, International Society of Family History Writers and Editors; Historian, Arizona Society of Mayflower Descendants, Graduate IGHR Samford 2006, Course 4, Advanced Methodology and Evidence Analysis.

Genealogical/Historical Societies memberships: NGS, NEHGS, Green Valley (Arizona) Genealogical Society, APG, Genealogical Speakers Guild, International Society of Family History Writers and Editors (Pres., 2008), Wyoming County (PA) Historical Society, General Society of Mayflower Descendants

Number of Years Active in Genealogy or Related Fields: 25+

Publications: Columnist (semi monthly), the Green Valley News, and the Sahuarita Sun; Editor, Green Valley Genealogical Society newsletter Past Tracks; History of the Descendants of Thomas Sheridan, a Scots-Irishman who served in the New Jersey Continental Line during the American Revolution, to be self-published.

Topics of Speeches: Women Without Shadows: Gone without a Trace; U.S. Migration Trails: Following Your Ancestors through History; The Research Plan: The Key to Successful Research; Internet Research: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly; Problem Solving: Attack Your Brick Walls; Documentation: From Source to Citation; Irish or Scots-Irish Ancestor: What is the Difference?; Organization and You: Maximize Your Potential; Other topics developed by request.

Comments: I travel to Arizona frequently to visit family (both in the area of Heber and down in the Valley). I travel in an RV so I do not need overnight accommodations beyond a place to park.

My style of presentation is unique and I would enjoy the opportunity to share my programs with your society. I am experienced in doing a number of presentations in a single day (or weekend) and strongly suggest that, if you wish me to come to speak to your group, you consider booking me for more than a single presentation, or work with other local societies to have me come to present to more than one group within a single week or like period of time. Besides the programs listed on my website, I am able to tailor-make a presentation or seminar for your group’s particular interests/needs. Thank you for your consideration.
